Newsletter

November 2003

From the President’s Desk

I hope everyone has settled down after the sugar rush of Halloween only to begin preparing for the feasts of Thanksgiving! As the new President of Loch Braemar Community Association, I would love to enter into the holiday months by letting you, the neighbors of Loch Braemar, know that the past and present Board of Directors have put together an exciting calendar of events for the remainder of 2003 right into 2004! We kicked it off in October with our first annual chili fest and oh what a night that was! We have turkey trots, progressive dinners, game nights, childrens' activities and much more planned. I urge you to S T O P your busy schedule, participate and relax your hectic lives for a couple of hours each month. Give yourself a chance to spend time with your neighbors-especially those you do not already know. You may not know what you are missing!

As always, our volunteer hotline is open! The response has been good so far but we need GREAT in order for us to pull off everything we have planned. If you may be interested in helping out, please email me at hmoore@surfbest.net or call at 276-1466. In particular, we are looking for people interested in participating in the following:

- Progressive dinner in December
- Help to maintain the front entrance (very little time commitment)
- Fulfill the role of Vice President of LBCA
- Assistance with the Christmas Mother program

I look forward to hearing from anyone/everyone interested in helping out. I also hope everyone lives healthy and happy lifestyles throughout the month of November. Have a happy Thanksgiving and remember not to overlook the small things we are thankful for in life.

Sincerely,
Heather L. Moore

News & Announcements

Christmas Luminaries, 2003

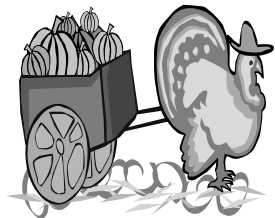

The Board has decided to do something different for the luminaries this year. Instead of purchasing them for the entire neighborhood, we are going to use the supplies collected from last year (rained out again!) to illuminate the entrance of Loch Braemar and combine it with our annual caroling event.

Final details have yet to be worked out so if you would like to help with this activity, please call Leslie Moore 745-0043. It is a short commitment and a great way to keep our neighborhood neighborly.

Christmas Mother Program

Loch Braemar will sponsor a "Christmas Mother" family again this year. See the enclosed flyer for details. If anyone is interested in helping out with shopping, gift wrapping or preparing the gifts for delivery to the Christmas Mother, please contact Loretta Codemo at 276-9057. This is an excellent Service Learning opportunity for any high school students who may be interested.

Turkey Trot

Loch Braemar's 2nd Turkey Trot will take place on Saturday, November 22. It will be a fun family event, where participants can run/trot/walk the course throughout the neighborhood. Starting time will be 9:30 a.m. Watch for more details on a sign near the entrance! Plan to join in the fun!

Web Site Update

Subscribe to our new mailing list online at www.lochbraemar.com. In an effort to better facilitate communication between the Loch Braemar neighbors, the Board will use this list to notify you of upcoming events in the neighborhood, plan changes, and other neighborhood related activities. Give it a try!

Neighbor—to—Neighbor

Loch Braemar's 1st Annual Chilifest a true heart-warming event

Hope you were one of the lucky ones that were treated to some great food and music on Saturday, October 18th. Our neighbor, Paul Albus and his Down and Out Band played some great music that had us dancing poolside. Neighbors Lisa Briggs, Sue Sullivan, Carl Woods and Tamara Martin prove themselves as true chili chefs while Janice Moore (Heather's wonderful mother-in-law) was our lady of the grill serving up some great burgers and dogs. Our fun and frolic lead to ideas for a "Women of Loch Braemar 2004 Calendar". How about it ladies?!?

If you missed this event, read this newsletter to learn of other neighborhood activities you can join in on.

Neighborhood Bible Study Group for Women

Neighborhood women are invited to attend the Bible Study group that meets every Wednesday at 10am, and alternates meeting at either Sally Tan's or Fay Sirk's home. The group is currently working on the Book of Mark. If you're interested in attending, please call Sally at 675-2801, or Fay at 675-0066.
